

Job Title: Heavy Equipment Operator

POSTION OBJECTIVE

Operator will be potentially trained into an equipment operator for deep foundations. The operator may be tasked with large diameter drilling, earth retention and shoring. The operator will be working with the project managers or other foreman to make sure each project is completed on time and properly. Operators may be responsible for some onsite repair and maintenance.

ESSENTIAL DUTES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- Job notes.
- Proficient in safely loading and lashing down loads for transportation.
- Unloading equipment and tools.
- Fill out and turn in reports on equipment condition when returned from a job.
- Experience operating equipment such as cranes, drills, backhoes, loaders to assist in Foundation Drilling.
- Operates tools and equipment to perform support tasks for drilling operations.
- Provides manual labor as needed specific to the task.
- Works harmoniously with peers, supervisors, and the public and complies with Inland's policies.
- Willingness to travel in the Northwest region.
- Flexibility to come in early and/or stay late to meet the demanding schedule of a service based company.

Skills, Knowledge, and Abilities:

Knowledge of:

- Excellent communication skills.
- Self-motivated and willing to challenge themselves.
- Ability to be given instructions and see that task gets accomplished.
- Must have a strong work ethic and ability to work in a construction environment

License(s) or Certification(s) Required:

- Valid CDL driver's license.
- Medical Card.
- Forklift certification is recommended but not required; in house training and certification may be available.
- NCCCO Crane certification is a plus but not required; in house training and certification may be available.

WORK ENVIRONMENT:

- This job will be predominately outside work.
- This job will often include out of town work

Physical Demands, Hazards, and Working Conditions: The employee will have to meet these requirements, with or without reasonable accommodation, to succeed in this position.

The position requires very heavy work involving exerting over 75 pounds of force on a regular basis. While performing the duties of this job, the position is exposed to outside work conditions which could mean extreme heat and/or cold, wet/humid conditions, bright and/or dim light, dust or pollen. While performing the job duties the employee may also be exposed to intense noise levels, vibration, fumes or noxious odors, moving mechanical parts, working around heavy equipment, and heights.

The position requires normal visual acuity and field vision, hearing and depth perception.

We offer health insurance and a retirement program. We are an EEOC. Pay is DOE.

Position available immediately.

Please e-mail resume.

estimating@inlandcrane.com